

MANDATORY RULES FOR ALL COACHES

ALL Coaches:

First and foremost, the League wishes to thank all coaches for donating their time and energy to coaching for the NSPL. Your efforts are much appreciated by players, parents and the NSPL family!

In general, games that move along quickly, at a brisk pace, are preferred by parents, coaches and players. Please do your best to have the field and your team ready at the start of the game and keep warm-up time between innings down to a minimum.

All coaches (Head Coaches and Assistant Coaches) acknowledge and agree to coach in accordance with the NSPL Mission Statement which is, as follows:

“NSPL is dedicated to helping players enjoy the game of softball, developing their skills, learning about good sportsmanship, making new friends and having fun in a healthy, outdoor, athletic setting. The aim is to accomplish this through positive reinforcement and fundamental training such that it builds confidence and positive attitudes.”

If any coach is ejected from the game, they are automatically suspended from the next game. If they receive a second ejection, they will be removed from coaching.

Coaches in the Minors division should be extra mindful of teen umpires. Arguing with a teen umpire is prohibited and coaches will be removed immediately. Repeated violations will result in removal from coaching.
